Minister. Let us humbly confess our sins unto Almighty God.

A General Confession (p. 6)

Almighty and most merciful Father; We have erred, and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; And we have done those things which we ought not to have done; And there is no health in us. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare thou those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore thou those who are penitent; According to thy promises declared unto mankind In Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake; That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, To the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

OUR Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, On earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Venite, exultemus Domino (Hymn 612, BCP p. 9)

O COME let us sing unto the | LORD;

* let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation.

Let us come before his presence with thanks|giving;

* and show ourselves | glad in him with psalms.

For the LORD is a great | God;

* and a great King | above all gods.

In his hand are all the corners of the | earth;

* and the strength of the hills | is his also.

The sea is his and he | made it;

* and his hands prepar|ed the dry land.

O come let us worship and fall | down,

* and kneel before the | LORD our Maker.

For he is the Lord our | God;

* and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

O worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness;

* let the whole earth | stand in awe of him.

For he cometh, for he cometh to judge the | earth;

* and with righteousness to judge the world, and the peoples with his truth.

Glory be to the Father and to the | Son,

* and | to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever | shall be,

* world | without end. Amen.

Psalm 86. Inclina, Domine. (p. 447)

BOW down thine ear, O LORD, and hear me; * for I am poor, and in misery.

Preserve thou my soul, for I am holy: * my God, save thy servant that putteth his trust in thee.

Be merciful unto me, O Lord; * for I will call daily upon thee.

Comfort the soul of thy servant; * for unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.

For thou, Lord, art good and gracious, * and of great mercy unto all them that call upon thee.

Give ear, LORD, unto my prayer, * and ponder the voice of my humble desires.

In the time of my trouble I will call upon thee; * for thou hearest me.

Among the gods there is none like unto thee, O Lord; * there is not one that can do as thou doest.
All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship thee, O Lord; * and shall glorify thy Name.
For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: * thou art God alone.
Teach me thy way, O LORD, and I will walk in thy truth: * O knit my heart unto thee, that I may fear thy Name.

I will thank thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart; * and will praise thy Name for evermore.

For great is thy mercy toward me; * and thou hast delivered my soul from the nethermost hell.

O God, the proud are risen against me; * and the congregations of violent men have sought after my soul, and have not set thee before their eyes.

But thou, O Lord God, art full of compassion and mercy, * long-suffering, plenteous in goodness and truth.

O turn thee then unto me, and have mercy upon me; * give thy strength unto thy servant, and help the son of thine handmaid.

Show some token upon me for good; that they who hate me may see it, and be ashamed, * because thou, LORD, hast holpen me, and comforted me.

Psalm 142. Voce mea ad Dominum. (p. 518)

I CRIED unto the LORD with my voice; * yea, even unto the LORD did I make my supplication.

I poured out my complaints before him, * and showed him of my trouble.

When my spirit was in heaviness, thou knewest my path; * in the way wherein I walked, have they privily laid a snare for me.

I looked also upon my right hand, * and saw there was no man that would know me.

I had no place to flee unto, * and no man cared for my soul.

I cried unto thee, O LORD, and said, * Thou art my hope, and my portion in the land of the living.

Consider my complaint; * for I am brought very low.

O deliver me from my persecutors; * for they are too strong for me.

Bring my soul out of prison, that I may give thanks unto thy Name; * which thing if thou wilt grant me, then shall the righteous resort unto my company.

Minister. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

Answer. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. [all sit]

The First Lesson

1 Kings 8:37-43

If there be in the land famine, if there be pestilence, blasting, mildew, locust, or if there be caterpillar; if their enemy besiege them in the land of their cities; whatsoever plague, whatsoever sickness there be; What prayer and supplication soever be made by any man, or by all thy people Israel, which shall know every man the plague of his own heart, and spread forth his hands toward this house: Then hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and do, and give to every man according to his ways, whose heart thou knowest; (for thou, even thou only, knowest the hearts of all the children of men;) That they may fear thee all the days that they live in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers. Moreover concerning a stranger, that is not of thy people Israel, but cometh out of a far country for thy name's sake; (For they shall hear of thy great name, and of thy strong hand, and of thy stretched out arm;) when he shall come and pray toward this house; Hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for: that all people of the earth may know thy name, to fear thee, as do thy people Israel; and that they may know that this house, which I have builded, is called by thy name.

Benedictus es, Domine. (Hymn 623, BCP p. 11)

Blessed art thou, O Lord | God of • our fathers: * praised and exalted above | all for ever.
Blessed art thou for the | Name of • thy Majesty: * praised and exalted above | all for ever.
Blessed art thou in the temple | of thy holiness: * praised and exalted above | all for ever.
Blessed art thou that beholdest the depths, and dwellest be|tween the Cherubim: * praised and exalted

Blessed art thou on the glorious | throne of • thy kingdom: * praised and exalted above | all for ever.
Blessed art thou in the firma|ment of heaven: * praised and exalted above | all for ever.
Glory be to the Father, and I to the Son, * and I to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, * world without | end. Amen.

The Second Lesson

I Thessalonians 4:1-8 (p. 127)

WE beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more. For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus. For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication: that every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour; not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God: that no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified. For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness. He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

Benedictus. St. Luke i. 68. (Hymnal 640/BCP p. 14)

BLESSED be the Lord God of | Israel; * for he hath visited and re|deemed • his people;
And hath raised up a mighty sal|vation for us, * in the house of his | servant David;
As he spake by the mouth of his | holy Prophets, * which have | been • since the | world began;
That we should be saved | from our enemies, * and from the hand of | all that hate us.
To perform the mercy promised to our | forefathers, * and to remember his | holy covenant;

To perform the oath which he sware to our forefather | Abraham, * that | he would give us;
That we being delivered out of the | hand of • our enemies * might | serve him • without fear;
In holiness and righteous|ness before him, * all the | days of our life.

And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet | of the Highest: * for thou shalt go before the face of the | Lord • to pre|pare his ways;

To give knowledge of salvation | unto • his people * for the re|mission of their sins,
Through the tender mercy | of our God; * whereby the day-spring from on | high hath | visit•ed us;
To give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the | shadow • of death,
* and to guide our feet | into • the way of peace.

Glory be to the Father, and | to the Son, * and | to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and | ever shall be, * world without | end. Amen.

The Gospel

St. Matthew 15:21-28 (p. 128)

JESUS went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tyre and Sidon. And, behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of David; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil. But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us. But he answered and said, I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel. Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me. But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs. And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table. Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

The Apostles' Creed (p. 15)

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord: Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary: Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead, and buried: He descended into hell; The third day he rose again from the dead: He ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty: From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

And, we beseech thee, give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful; and that we show forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up our selves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

The Lenten Study Group will meet this Wednesday (via Zoom), from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m., for the second of four remaining Wednesdays. We are discussing the book "As It Is in Heaven" by Father Paul Castellano, available for $19.95 on Amazon. We will discuss two chapters per class. Please pre-read chapter Three and Four in advance of the coming Wednesday's class.

After the conditions last week, the Vestry has expanded the definition of "inclement weather" to include predicted winds in excess of 15 mph. In such conditions, the outdoor service is not practical (nor safe), and we will celebrate the Lord's Day with a virtual service conducted via Zoom. Plans will be set and announced no later than noon Saturday to provide notice to all of you.
